Eyewitness: Peekskill "is a documented report on the ugly events which took place in the town of Peekskill in Westchester County, New York, on August 27 and September 4, 1949." This twenty-four page well-illustrated pamphlet can be a tool for education in any community to prevent similar disturbing attacks on people bent on the exercise of their democratic rights, says the Methodist Federation for Social Action. The price is 15 cents; write to Box 431, White Plains, New York.

Fathers are as necessary and essential in the lives of the children as are mothers, is the theme of the most recent public affairs pamphlet, Making the Grade as Dad, by Walter and Edith Neisser. The price is 20 cents. Send for this from Public Affairs Committee, Incorporated, 22 East 38th Street, New York 16, New York.

Blueprint for Understanding is a review of the Institute of International Education through its thirty years of existence. Calling this synopsis a blueprint by no means goes to say that the structure of the institute is incomplete. Rather the figure is chosen to indicate continuing construction, with sound workmanship and a clearly drawn objective. Obtain this valuable booklet from the institute, 2 West 45th Street, New York 19, New York.

"The white church in the rural South has the unique opportunity of demonstrating the most significant type of Christian service which our generation may witness, and bring nearer to fulfillment the words of the Master regarding 'these my brethren.'" These My Brethren is a remarkably objective study of the racial situation in the South. It is a study of 570 Negro churches and 1,542 Negro homes in the rural South. Write the Department of the Rural Church, Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, New Jersey. Each copy is 40 cents.

The Seventh Semiannual Report of the Atomic Energy Commission submitted January 31, is David E. Lilienthal's final act as the commission's chairman. The report comes at the end of three years of work by the group. This 228-page booklet is composed of two parts, the first concentrating on the activities and development in atomic energy during last year, the second emphasizing research in physical sciences with attention to training of competent scientists and technical men of talent and training. One phase of the report indicates that development of atomic production has moved from the laboratory to the industrial scale. Study of this report in its wide import should be on the conscience of every world-minded student. Send for a copy from the United States Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.

The Real Danger—Fear of Ideas by Henry Steele Commager is a reprint from The New York Times Magazine sent us by the American Civil Liberties Union, 170 Fifth Avenue,

New York 10, New York. Four times in the history of our country we have succumbed to national hysteria and damaged the welfare of the total public by seemingly protective laws. We are now at a fifth "reign of terror" when the very basis of our freedom may be harmfully endangered by the scare of ideas. We are afraid of communist infiltration into the government, subversives giving away secrets, subversive teaching in schools and colleges, and we further are becoming fearful of solid criticism of the trend of government and country. Write the American Civil Liberties Union, address above, for this stirring pamphlet.

David Hennessy of the Distributist Bookstall, Stottlers Cross Roads, West Virginia, sends us three booklets centered for provoking thought. Rejection starts with a poem by Eric Gill, "It is more blessed to receive than to reject." Mosaic of Man by Francis Walsh and The Evolution of Peace both come from England and deal with pressing social problems. The last two are available at 15 and 20 cents.

Methodism Behind the Bamboo Curtain answers such questions as, "Can we get our money to missionaries and Chinese friends, or will it be seized by the Communists?" This pamphlet is an honest attempt to put before the people a resume of China as it was before January 1, 1950. Write to the Editorial Department, Division of Education and Cultivation, Board of Missions and Church Extension, 150 Fifth Avenue, New York 11, New York.
